Dear Ms Brooksby

I write with reference to your letter of 21st November. It is very remiss of me not to have responded before now. At that time, my wife underwent an operation and has since been at home recovering so it rather slipped my mind.

I am very grateful for all your efforts in obtaining this compensation which has come at an opportune time, just before Christmas. I must admit, I was somewhat sceptical as to whether the claim would succeed after all this time so it was a very pleasant surprise.

I have to say that your colleagues have kept me updated throughout the time and your fee is well deserved.

With thanks

Subject: Compensation - Catalyst Investment Group Limited

Good afternoon

Firstly, I must thank you for being successful with my claim against Catalyst.

The fact that you did not give up when the claim was rejected shows to me the tenacious attitude which is sadly lacking in many organisations today.

The compensation will make a huge difference to me especially with all the cost of living increases we are all suffering right now.

You mention in your letter that you can make payment by Direct Bank Transfer and given that we are subject to Postal Strikes, I would be grateful if you could make the payment to me by this method.

My Bank details are: Sort Code:

Once again thank you for all your help.

Best Regards,

Alan

Dear Ewan

Just received a bank transfer re Catalyst Investment Group Ltd. Also received a letter from FSCS. Many thanks. I want to place on record my appreciation of your handling of this claim from start to finish. I have to say I thought you had a 10-20% chance at best. However it was all professionally and very well handled.

So that's two successful claims - well done and thank you very much to all you were involved.

Dear sir / Madam

FSCS Reference PB22-

Congratulations on getting my investment back in compensation from DMT

I am just wondering whether you requested the compound interest that would have accrued from the investment over the almost 9 years as a fair completion of compensation

It is good that you have got an added £81.40 but I am just thinking that the interest would add more.

Keep up the good work

Thanking you

Kindest regards

Good morning Ewan,

Just wanted to extend another heartfelt thank you as I noticed an additional GBP 11 514 had been transferred into my account.

As before, there is a huge amount of relief in dissolving the frustrations of this experience with DMT and the efforts from you and your team have been pivotal in reaching this closure. I am sure you have helped many others in a similar situation and I have no doubt my gratitude can almost certainly be extended on their behalf as well.

Once again, thank you very very much - and may I also wish you and your team a very pleasant Christmas and Happy new Year!

Best Regards

Hi,

Many thanks for your email re Pello Capital.

Whilst we were contacted by one of the former members of staff of DMT we took the decision NOT to trust anyone associated directly or indirectly with DMT with any further investments, so on this occasion we were not exposed to any dealings that might have resulted in a loss.

We would again like to thank you for acting for us previously and would have no hesitation in recommending you to anyone else who finds themselves in a similar situation

Dear Claire Brooksbury,

DMT - CLAIM AGAINST

Kwan Porter rang me, probably on the same day your letter was sent.

He told me about the £963-67 award and my 70%.

He implied the cheque to me may well arrive before Christmas.

There is a further more valuable claim and my impression is that the resolution may take a while.

I have not received a copy of the decision letter that relates to the £674-57 award to myself, I will let you know when it does arrive.

I am grateful for the considerable amount of work Hallbrook has done on my behalf. Thank you very much.

Yours Sincerely,
